

ISD ONE10 PROTOCOLS

There are many complexities and requirements from the state that will need to be followed as we make decisions on how ISD 110 will deliver the best education possible in the safest environment in this new model. We understand that decisions made in all of our planning impact every student and every family in multiple ways. The best interests of all students, staff and families are at the center of our planning.

- All MDH and CDC guidelines will be followed
- Mandatory masks for students and adults

LEARNING PODS

- This model meets the requirements of both In-Person and Hybrid Learning with safety precautions built throughout.
- The Learning Pod Instructional Model utilizes all areas within the building allowing all K-5 families the option for their child(ren) to attend school daily.
- K - 5 will have every day instruction in small groups we call learning pods (students will stay within their learning pods during the school day using social distancing and safety protocols).

STAFFING

- Instruction, support, and supervision throughout the school day for each learning pod will be delivered by two licensed elementary teachers and one educational assistant.

TRANSPORTATION

- With limited bus capacity due to social distancing requirements, we will NEED to partner with families to drive their children, or carpool, to school.

TIMING

- The K-5 school day will be adjusted to a start time of 8:30am with dismissal at 2:30pm.

Parents with students in all grades will have the option to opt out of in-person instruction for their child(ren) and ISD 110 will provide a distance learning education for those students.

This Distance Learning model will be even more enhanced and interactive when compared to the distance learning that finished out the 2019-2020 school year.

GRADES 7-12 HYBRID INSTRUCTION MODEL

- Students on an “AB” Rotation “A” students will be in person on Monday and Thursday and “B” students will be in person on Tuesday and Friday.

- Wednesday will be a day for pre-identified students to receive required additional services, time for staff development, and planning.

FAMILIES WITH MULTIPLE STUDENTS

- For families with multiple students on the “AB” rotation, attention will be given to keep siblings on the same rotation.
